

Take Highway 101 south out of Las Animas, CO (paved – but turns to gravel about half way to Refuge)
Stay on Highway 101 for approximately 42 miles
Highway 101 employs Rd. A and Rd. TT5 for portions along the way - and at approx. mile 41 the road splits - stay to right - (on right shoulder area you should see small sign that says Pritchett)
Keep going another mile or so - Then turn Right (south) onto County Road 6 (white ranch sign at intersection that says “Cedar's Edge Ranch”)
Go south 1.5 miles on Rd. 6 to dead end - which is County Road QQ
Turn right on Rd. QQ (west) and go 1 mile to dead end - which is County Road 5
Turn left (south) on Rd. 5 and go ½ mile to County Road PP
Turn Right (west) on Rd. PP and go approximately 8 miles to the corner intersection of Rd. PP and Rd. O
This corner is where the entrance to Sanctuary/Refuge is located (Should see TWAS letters on a large white mail box)
